

Paycheck Protection Program opportunity

Truist's Supplier Diversity mission ensures that our suppliers reflect who we are as a community and company. Our diverse suppliers play an important role in helping us deliver on our purpose to inspire and build better lives and communities. And we want to make sure COVID-19 doesn't change that.

If your business needs extra financial support in these difficult times, we invite you to apply for the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) through Truist. While we're currently only offering PPP access to existing business clients, if you're not a current BB&T or SunTrust, now Truist client, we're making an exception for you.

Here's how to get started:

- Open a BB&T* business checking account online, or at a local branch. Note that we require a BB&T, now Truist, business checking account in order to fund approved PPP loans.
- When you get your new business checking account number, please forward a copy of this email to TruistPPP2021@Truist.com with your name, your phone number, the name of the business and the business address. We'll send you a confirmation that your account has been added to the application eligibility list along with instructions to apply. Please allow up to 3 business days for a response.

If you already have a business checking or business loan account with either BB&T or SunTrust, now Truist, you can simply enroll in our PPP application alerts and you'll receive an invitation to apply when the online application is ready.

Before applying, make sure you're aware of eligibility requirements and understand PPP loan forgiveness rules by visiting the Small Business Administration's website or the Truist PPP FAQ.

If you have any questions about applying for PPP funds through Truist, please email a member of our team at Truistppp2021@Truist.com. We'll help you get answers.

We look forward to continuing our partnership.

Thank you,

Your team at Truist
